FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 13, 2010

A Prime Time Affair

JACKSON, TENN. — The Jackson Area Chamber of Commerce wants to thank businesses in West Tennessee for their support by hosting a business after hours event called Prime Time from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Tuesday, January 26 at the Carl Perkins Civic Center.

Instead of holding a monthly Business After Hours event, the Chamber will host Prime Time in January. Prime Time, a free networking event created for Chamber business members, is also open to the public.

During the program, business and Chamber members who recently joined or sold a membership will display their products and services. Light hors d’oeuvres will also be served.

For more information, contact the Chamber’s manager of events, Lisa Webb, at (731) 423-2200 or by sending an e-mail to lwebb@jacksontn.com.

About the Chamber: The Jackson Area Chamber of Commerce was founded in 1905 – seven years prior to the United States Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber consists of a diverse and talented staff, an executive committee, dedicated volunteers, and more than 1,350 business members – all committed to growing the economy and quality of life for everyone in Madison County and the region.
