What: U40 Chamber Young Professionals Luncheon

When: June 17, Friday, 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Where: Coyote Blues “Blue Room,” 541 Wiley Parker Road in Jackson, TN

U40, which stands for under 40, is a bimonthly event created to motivate young professionals who are 40 years old and younger to be leaders of the Jackson area. Attendees enjoy lunch, networking and valuable insight from business and community leaders from Jackson and the surrounding area. The featured speaker for the June event will be Steve Bowers, TV & Media Manager for Jackson Energy Authority, co-host of “Daybreak,” and host and producer of “Prime Time Drive” on WNWS Newstalk 101.5. The cost to attend the event is $15 for chamber members and $25 for non-chamber members. Advance registration is required. Contact Brandy Stutsman at bstutsman@jacksontn.com or 423-2200, extension 126, to register for this event.

For more information about Steve Bowers, visit www.wnws.com/steve.html. To learn more about the U40 program, visit www.facebook.com/u40youngpros.

U40 is sponsored by West Tennessee Healthcare; Coyote Blues; Alexander Thompson Arnold PLLC, ING Financial Advisers Steve Little and Brad Little; Murray Guard/Personnel Placements LLC; West Tennessee Business College.

About Jackson Area Chamber of Commerce:

The Jackson Area Chamber of Commerce was founded in 1905 – seven years prior to the United States Chamber of Commerce. The chamber consists of a diverse and talented staff, an executive committee, dedicated volunteers, and more than 1,200 business members – all committed to growing the economy and quality of life for everyone in Madison County and the region. Governed by a board of directors, the chamber is a nonprofit that concentrates its efforts on economic development, which consists of marketing the area to potential employers, developing and enhancing minority and new business partnerships, workforce development, job creation, and the overall promotion of Jackson-Madison County as a great place to work, live, play and do business.
